US Approves $4.5B KC-46A Tanker Sale to Qatar as AeroVironment Plants Loitering-Munition Production in Greece

Defense Brief

The Bottom Line

Today's defense news was dominated by procurement and industrial capacity rather than battlefield moves. Washington cleared a $4.5B tanker sale to Qatar and AeroVironment committed to building loitering munitions in Greece, while Poland unveiled a 1,000km-range strike plan and Indonesia accepted a Chinese ammunition factory. The common thread is localization: buyers from the Gulf to Southeast Asia and Europe are pushing for domestic production and technology transfer, and suppliers are responding by building factories rather than just shipping weapons.
